9.1 Statement from Al Barfoot

Al Barfoot asked to read the following statement that he had prepared for Dr. Arra. “Thank you for your leadership through this current COVID-19 pandemic. For those of us who have been associated with the board of health for the past few years and were involved in the MOH management changes, Dr. Arra you have renewed our confidence that we made the appropriate change at that time. The daily updates that you provide, the confidence that is in your voice when you speak, your reports through the media, your correspondence with municipal and business leaders of our community gives us assurance that Grey Bruce is being well managed through this crisis. Thank you again for your leadership.”
