Official Plan Overview

Warden Barfoot provided an overview of Grey County's Official Plan and the process tonight's meeting will follow and outlined the regulations.

In accordance with the Planning Act, the County of Grey gave notice of this Public Meeting in local newspapers. The County posted the notice of the meeting on the County website and also promoted the meeting through social media. The County also emailed out the notice to a number of individuals and organizations for which there was contact information. If members of the public would like to stay notified of any updates on the Recolour Grey process, they are encouraged to sign-up for notification on the County website, sign-up tonight using the tablet or the sign-up sheet that is situated near the main doors of the Council Chambers.

Randy Scherzer presented an overview of what an Official Plan is, the current Grey County Official Plan and what is contained within it. He spoke to several studies and policy changes that have taken place over the last several years that may be incorporated into the new Official Plan.

Mr. Scherzer outlined the engagement process and work plan for Recolour Grey.

Breakout Workshops

County Council, staff and members of the public then moved to the Seminar Room to participate in breakout workshops related to the Official Plan Review focusing on five themes related to the environment, transportation, recreation/tourism, agriculture/rural/resources and settlement areas.

Follow Up Presentations

Planning staff provided a follow up presentation related to the themes and comments identified during the breakout workshop. The comments that were identified for each theme will be summarized and placed on the Grey County website for information.

Public Question Period

Members of the public were invited to the podium to ask further questions and provide comments on Grey County's Official Plan review process. Mr. Scherzer stated that if there are any additional comments or questions from those in attendance, they are to provide the Chair with their name and address for the record.

The following members of the public spoke:

- Joseph Young
- Doug Karrow
- David Ross

The comments from the public identified the following concerns:

- Waste management-treatment of organic waste
- Various aspects related to the impact of aggregate pits-cumulative effects, third party review of pit applications, statute of limitations on pit applications, size, number and density
- Where does the fee per tonne from aggregate pits go?
- Shoreline transportation needs improvement (i.e. east of Owen Sound) to allow for more land development

The public were thanked for their participation in Recolour Grey.
